Jerry J Mercatelli : Jokes That Flip Your Lid before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jokes That Flip Your Lid:

About the AuthorI was born on Staten Island, New York, U.S.A. on October 12, 1963. I went to St. Roch's Elementary

School from 1970-78. I went to St. Peter's Boys High School in 1979 to 1982. I conferred my degree in Speech Communications at Wagner College in Staten Island, New York in 1986 and continued at Connecticut School of Broadcasting in Stratford, Connecticut in 1986-1987. During my employment with CBS News, New York City, I had an elevator accident, which hindered me to continue my regular routine. I got a new employment in Radio as "Producer On Air Talent". At the same time I was working @ Brooklyn Home Dialysis as a Billing Supervisor. Due to my accident, it has inhibited me as a result I could not continue working in my chosen field, however the Lord had given me the gift and focus to my joke books. In 1999 I got engaged to Corazon De Oro Alegado and married in July 2001. We have a daughter named Phoebe Marie.
